\ ** If you do not have a salary account with Afribank, we may still issue you a card as we look forward to building a stronger financial relationship with you. We request you open a current/ or domiciliary account.*

Kindly fill in and submit a direct debit mandate/standing order on your salary account. This standing order is similar to what you may have for your post paid service with a telecommunications service or for your subscriptions. The form is available at our branch or from the branch of the bank your salaried account is domiciled.

We will make a standing order on the date given, we suggest that that this date coincide with the date salary is paid or three days after. Should your mandate be returned back to us we will attempt three times after which your card will be placed on hold. Please be advised that interest due and resultant penalty charges will start to accrue.

Your card can only be activated upon the completion of the application form with requisite documentations.
